THE BATTLE OF KOREGAUM.

BOMBAY GRENADIERS' CELEBRATION.

The 24th Bombay Grenadiers (at present stationed in Hongkong), on January 1st, of each year observe the anniversary of the famous battle of Koregaum. The battle was fought on January 1st, 1818, during the Maratha War and the Grenadiers (then known as the 21st) under the command of Capt. Staunton, put up a memorable defence against the Peshwa's forces, numbering more than 20,000, and a tall Basalt column now stands to commemorate the gallantry of the Battalion. It was erected by the order of the Governor-General (the Marquis of Hastings).

This year the commemoration parade was carried out in a very fitting manner on New Year's morning. It was held on the Marina Parade Ground, Kowloon and was attended by H.E. the Governor accompanied by his A.D.C. (Capt. Neville), Col. Nicholson, D.S.O., D.A.A., Q.M.G., and Lieut. Hall, R.A., A.D.C. to General Sir John Fowler, who was unable to be present owing to sickness.

The colours were garlanded and trooped and wreaths were placed on the Regimental colours by Col. W. B. Roberts, D.S.O., Commandant of the Battalion, on behalf of the British Officers; on the King's Colour by Mrs. Dodge on behalf of the Ladies of the Regiment; on the Regimental Colour by the Subadar Major, on behalf of the Indian Officers; by the senior Indian Officers of each Company on behalf of the men; and by the Pipe Major on behalf of the Band. After all the wreaths had been presented the Colours were trooped, the Pipe Band playing the "Koregaum March." Major T. T. Oakes then called for three cheers in memory of the "Victory of Koregaum."

The battalion sports were held on the grounds of the U.S.R.C. in the afternoon. The string band and the pipe band were in attendance, and some very keen and exciting races were witnessed.

HONGKONG AND CANTON.

THREE has been a lull in the excitement at Canton over the holidays, possibly due to a knowledge of the fact that communications were still passing between the Canton Government and the Inspector-General of Customs, which suggested that the Canton Government would not be immediately carrying out its declared intention. The position seems to be that while Sir FRANCIS AGLEN has informed the Canton Government that no Customs Surplus will be dealt with during the next three months, the Canton Government is insisting on an acknowledgment of its right to a share when the surplus becomes available. Action on the part of the Canton Government appears to be suspended pending a definite rejection of the principle for which it is contending.

Meanwhile it is interesting to note that, according to a Peking contemporary, there has been "a fair amount of criticism in some political circles in Peking over the action of the Governor of Hongkong in granting an interview to Mr. EUGENE CHEN, on behalf of Dr. SUN YAT SEN." The interview, however, is defended on the ground that Mr. CHEN is a British subject, and that "any British subject has a right to seek personal redress of a grievance at the hands of the Governor, and that His Excellency would have been acting unconstitutionally in refusing to see him." In view of the nature of Mr. CHEN's "grievance," this is perhaps a very debatable question; but we do not think anybody who realises the consequences to Hongkong which are likely to arise out of this question will quarrel with the action of the Governor in granting an audience to Mr. CHEN and hearing from him a statement of the position. Every one recognises the tidal interdependence of Canton and Hongkong, and realises that the Government of this Colony cannot afford to be supremely indifferent to the menace to trade which the Customs Question at Canton contains.

Mr. H. P. White, returned to the Colony on the Fushimi Maru on New Year's Day.

A Russian Concert is announced to be held at Mrs. Dowbiggin's residence, The Peak in aid of charity.

Canton papers on New Year's Day announced the resumption of regular services on the Canton-Kowloon Railway between Canton and Sheklung. These have been interrupted lately by the fighting in the East River.

Mr. Alex. Ramsay of Peking (formerly of the Hongkong Daily Press) has been elevated to the rank of Knight Commander of the Court of Honour, which is near to the thirty-third and last degree of Scottish Rite Free Masonry. This honour is conferred because of meritorious services.

Sergeant Robertson, who was wounded in the Yaumatei shooting affray on Saturday last, is still in a very weak condition. The doctors are hopeful of his ultimate recovery provided complications do not set in. The Indian Police Sergeant is still in a critical condition. All three wounded robbers, two of whom were seriously wounded, are still living.

Sir Roderick Jones, Managing Director and Chairman of Reuters, Ltd., arrived by the Kashima Maru on the 1st inst. He was met on arrival by Capt. Neville, and is the guest of H.E. the Governor at Government House. Mr. William Turner, General Manager in the Far East of Reuters, Ltd., who accompanied Sir Roderick Jones, is staying at the Repulse Bay Hotel.

On the Sunday after Christmas (December 30th), at the Church of Our Saviour, Canton, the Bishop of Victoria admitted to Deacons Orders Mr. Mo Yung In and Mr. Wong Pak Ping. The candidates were presented by the Ven. Archdeacon Barnett. The preacher was the Rev. P. Jenkins, Principal of St. Andrew's Theological College, Canton. Mr. Mo is to work in Sheklung and Mr. Wong in Hongkong.

MANILA, January 1st.
Several sharp earthquake shocks between one and two o'clock this morning woke up residents.

The only local name in the list of New Year Honours is that of Mr. T. L. Perkins who is made a Companion of the Order of St. Michael and St. George. With the recent vote of a gratuity of £1,000 by the Legislative Council and now the C.M.G., the late Director of Public Works should be feeling supremely happy in his retirement. When some thought is given to the heavy responsibilities which have rested upon the Director of Public Works in this Colony in the past decade one feels that the honours have been well deserved especially when the comparatively low pay attaching to the post of Director of Public Works is taken into account.

With a maximum salary of £1,500 this officer cannot be considered overpaid. Mr. Perkins had reached his maximum salary only a year before his retirement. He had held the substantive post of Director only two years, but had previously acted as D.P.W. for two periods. Altogether he had been in the service of the Colony for about nineteen years. His many friends in the Colony will congratulate him upon the recognition his work has received since his retirement some eight months ago. The Colony is especially indebted to him for the introduction of the new principles of road construction which have made Hongkong, in respect of its roads, the envy of the Far East, and we owe also to his initiation the quarry workshops which have become an invaluable adjunct of ever-increasing importance to the Department.

There were numerous watchlight services and a novel feature was the broadcasting of the midnight chimes from the famous Big Ben of the Houses of Parliament.

His Majesty the King, in replying to New Year congratulations from the Lord Mayor of London, says he is confident that with God's help the British will be true to their great traditions and face and overcome the difficulties still confronting them at the close of a decade which, though memorable in glorious achievement, has been beset by much trial and suffering.

New York, December 31st.
America is ringing out the old year with peals of jubilation over the prosperity of the country.

Mr. Hoover, the Secretary of Commerce, says that the American people have produced more, spent more and saved more in 1923 than in 1922 and their consuming power is still increasing. The New Year promising to be one of full employment at high wages. "In the course of his statement he says:— 'Taking the country as a whole we have never in our history enjoyed a higher standard of living and comfort nor so great a degree of commercial and industrial efficiency.'

New York hotels and restaurants sold seats for 50,000 diners at an average of two guineas per cover.
Berlin, January 1st.
Chancellor Marx, in a message to the nation, hopes that the bulwarks of hate and distrust separating Germany from other nations may be torn down. Reuter's correspondent adds that there were little signs of Germany's deplorable financial position on New Year Eve, for the streets were packed with hilarious crowds, the restaurants being filled and the people flaunting their affluence regardless of the high prices.

NEW YEAR WELCOMED WITH WORDS OF HIGH PROMISE.

Washington, January 1st.
The President and several members of the Cabinet welcomed the New Year with words of high promise. Mr. Coolidge, in a message to the nation, said: "The nation has made a record of gratifying accomplishment and there is every reason to believe that the advancement will continue during the coming months."

Mr. Mellon, in his statement, said he looked with confidence to a prosperous year in 1924. "He felt convinced that if the tax reduction proposals were enacted, and a sound policy of retrenchment and expenditure continued, the coming year would witness a steady improvement in the favourable conditions which had already begun to make themselves felt."

Mr. Hoover, in his message, sees a hopeful foundation for the New Year in the high degree of economic recovery in America, Asia and Africa, and the undoubted progress of Russia, the Balkans and the Near East. "He said that the economic world had not yet felt the full impact of the occupation of the Ruhr. During 1923 Government receipts were $4,184,000,000, about $200,000,000 more than the previous year. Expenditure was $3,889,000,000, leaving a net balance of $295,000,000."

INDIAN NATIONAL CONGRESS SOME AMBITIOUS SCHEMES.

Cocacoda, January 1st.

After a lively debate the National Congress accepted, by 775 votes to 203, subjects on the committee's recommendation to refer to the Committee of the Indian National Party, calling for the emancipation of Asia. The National Congress declined to treat similarly the Bengal Swarajist Hindu-Muslim pact which was rejected.

The Council of the Swaraj Party passed a resolution containing demands to be presented to the Government, calling for the immediate establishment of a full responsible Government.
As a preliminary thereto, the Council suggests that elected members of the House of Legislature should demand from the Government the immediate and unconditional release of Gandhi and all political prisoners, suspension of oppressive laws, the summoning of a conference of which elected members of the Legislative Assembly, Congress and Government should each elect one-third of the members; this conference to determine the principles of a constitution for India, including a declaration of the rights of full control of legislation, administration, finance and the services by the Legislature. The decision of the Conference will then be submitted to the new Legislature, to be elected on a wider franchise, which will finally frame the constitution to be presented to Parliament. The resolution will be considered at a meeting of Swarajist members of the Legislature at Lucknow on January 9th.

FRENCH COLONIAL POLICY. COTTON AND WOOL PRODUCTION.

Paris, January 1st.

Mr. Loucheur, in a speech on France's colonial policy, deprecated the dependence of France on Britain and the United States for wool and cotton. He declared that it was undoubtedly possible for French colonies to furnish France with her supply of wool and cotton. The Ministry of the Colonies had recently appointed directly to those interested and the Chamber of Commerce had sent a mission to Madagascar, where, after the rainy season, it would be possible to say if they were becoming acclimated. A similar experiment was being tried in the Valley of the Niger and also in Morocco.

Mr. Loucheur estimated that in a decade France would be largely independent of foreign wool imports.

The question of cotton production was more difficult. A vast programme of irrigation being studied, but it must be years before it was realised. Irrigation had been undertaken South of Timbuctoo, where over 3,500 acres of cotton were already being cultivated, the first results from which were excellent. The Ministry is negotiating with manufacturers in France in connection with the development of cotton growing at Dakhoneh on the Ivory Coast of Guinea, where essentially two-thirds of France's requirements might be produced.

FRANCE AND THE LITTLE ENTENTE.

BRITISH AND ITALIAN DIPLOMATIC CIRCLES PERTURBED.

London, December 31st.

Reuter understands that the British Government has been enquiring from the Little Entente Government how far the plans to which Poland, Yugoslavia and Rumania are subject as successor States are likely to be affected by the loans recently concluded between them and the French Government.

Surprise is expressed in diplomatic circles in London that Czechoslovakia has become involved in an entangling alliance with France, which is bound eventually to lead to a division of Europe into two armed camps, with Britain and Scandinavia looking on.

Italian opinion is most perturbed about this latest alliance, which will mean the consolidation of the Little Entente and possibly obstruct the projected Italo-Russian Entente.

France's loans to Poland and Yugoslavia and Rumania are receiving much attention from the French newspapers, which believe Britain is about to take action in the matter. The Temps asserts that Britain means to raise the whole question of inter-allied debts, and contends that the fact that the Little Entente nations must arm themselves in self defence does not prove that they will be able to pay their debts. Le Journal contends that France's loans are purely Treasury operations, serving general interest. The Homme Libre says if the Little Entente is compelled to arm, it is solely because of the British Government's policy of blindness.

COMMUNISM IN RUSSIA ENDED? REVERTING TO CAPITALISM.

Speaking at a meeting of British business men in London, Mr. Marshall, the managing director of British Empire Traders Limited, declared that the period of communism in Russia could be regarded as ended, and that the present phase was gradually reverting to capitalism.

He believed that the Russian Government would admit responsibility for the liquidation of Russian liabilities if rapid development of industries could be insured.

THE WORLD OF SPORT. FRANCE BEATS SCOTLAND AT INTERNATIONAL RUGBY.

London, January 1st.

Playing at the Pershing Stadium, Paris, on New Year's Day, France beat Scotland in a Rugby International by 12 points to 10.

There were 15,000 people present, following heavy rain in the morning, the ground was very muddy. Scotland had the better of matters early on, Drysdale just missing with a penalty kick from thirty-five yards range. After twenty minutes' play, Jaurreguy, the French wing threequarter, got over, but the try was unconverted. Two minutes later Piquelard secured from a line-out and got through the Scottish backs. Grabos took the kick and the referee decided that the try had been converted. Later, however, owing to disagreement between the touch judges, the try was held to have been unconverted. Scotland attacked desperately and Bryce secured from a scrum and flashed the ball to Wallace who went over to score an unconverted try. The interval score was six points to three.

On the resumption, Scotland pressed and Davies scored a penalty goal. Just later Waddell dropped a magnificent goal from 25 yards, thus giving Scotland the lead by 10 points to six. France rallied and a fine movement saw Calau, the fly-half, register a try, unconverted. From a line-out, Lasserre broke and scored a beautiful try, unconverted, France thus winning by 12 points to 10.

DUNLOP RUBBER COMPANYS AFFAIRS.

WRITS AGAINST DIRECTORS.

London, December 31st.

As the outcome of a special Committee's enquiries during the past eighteen months into the position of the Company, as disclosed by the balance sheet for 1921, a sensational circular has been distributed to shareholders of the Dunlop Rubber Company calling an extraordinary meeting on January 3rd to endorse the action of the Directors in issuing writs against the President and also a number of past and present Directors.

The circular states that Sir Arthur Du Cros, President, has issued a writ against the Company asking for a declaration that the agreement under which he has been drawing a salary of £12,000 a year, tax free, is binding upon the Company. Mr. Alfred Du Cros and Mr. George Du Cros have also instituted actions in respect of their agreements. The Company is defending all three actions.

The present position of the Directors of the Company is that only five of them—Sir Eric Geddes, Sir George Beharrell, Sir Guy Granet and Messrs. Szarvasy and Tait—are, in the opinion of the Company's counsel, entirely unaffected by the report of the inspectors. Some of the past and present Directors, against whom, as a result of the findings of the report, counsel has advised that writs should be issued, have made proposals for a settlement. The Directors have encouraged a withdrawal of all cases, considering it best in the interests of shareholders that, as far as possible, the claims of the Company should be adjusted by negotiation rather than litigation.

Settlement will be rendered more difficult if the report is published. Therefore the Directors ask the shareholders to leave these grave matters in their hands, stating that the reorganisation to be carried out will amply safeguard the interests of shareholders, who will be invited to pass a resolution of confidence at the meeting on January 3rd. Appendix to the circular is a statement showing that the Company's profit for the 18 months ended December 31st is estimated at over £1,250,000.

PROJECTED TINPLATE COMBINE.

It is proposed to amalgamate several merchant firms to form a central selling agency for the whole output of the tinplate works controlled by Richard Thomas and Company, and the Gravesend Tinplate Company, recently acquired by Richard Thomas and Company. It is understood that it is proposed to register the new company with a capital of one million sterling. The new concern will handle the output of nearly 220 mills.

WIRELESS DEVELOPMENT. LONDON SYMPHONY CONCERTS HEARD IN SOUTH AFRICA.

London, January 1st.

The fact that Middelburg, a town in the Cape province, heard London broadcasts on Sunday morning, is hailed by London papers as the most amazing wireless achievement of the week. It is pointed out that, as the transmission of the concert in Pittsburg which was heard in London began at 11.45 p.m., South Africa must have heard Pittsburg via London.

A concert and speeches in Paris were successfully heard in London last night, encouraging broadcasters to continue experiments aiming at the substitution of wireless for land lines which in future will be used for simultaneously broadcasting programmes.

THE CONDITION OF IRELAND. HOPE AND CONFIDENCE.

London, January 1st.

Advisers from Dublin agree in depicting the transformation produced in Ireland, which is entering on the New Year with hope and confidence. Crime is admittedly still above normal, but the gunmen have put away their weapons and have returned to work. Ministers more freely and unprotected and there is no trace of the old tension. Only 3,000 out of 12,000 remain imprisoned and there are only 32,000 unemployed. It is stated that the unemployed dole will shortly be dropped altogether.

All Chinese and 4 Englishmen were arrested and remanded until to-day on bail. The prosecuting solicitor said that pakapu is becoming popular among the English.

THE IMPERIAL CONFERENCE.

London, January 1st.

Speaking at a farewell luncheon in the Colonial Institute, Mr. Bruce, said the Imperial Conference were not bound by the so-called resolutions of the Imperial economic conference. "This would be an undemocratic contention. The Dominions claimed to be free to decide, and nothing could be binding until the sanction be received of the various Parliaments."

However, it would be tragic if effect were not given to the conference resolutions. (Cheers). He believed it would strike a very vital blow at the unity of Empire if the whole result of the Conference were destroyed. He believed, however, that any Government coming into power in Britain would closely examine everything in their power to try and give effect to the conclusions.

Mr. Bruce gave a moving description of a recent visit he made to the war cemeteries in France. Focusing on to Imperial trade he contended the statement that the Colonies could do very little towards building up British commerce. On the contrary, what they could do in the business arena would be a hundred-fold greater than the amazing and wonderful things they did in the war. The whole question of Empire development should, he urged, be considered outside the field of party politics.

BRITAIN'S REVENUE. BIG DEFICIT.

London, January 1st.

The national revenue for the nine months just ended shows a deficit of six millions, but it is expected that this will be wiped out in the course of the next three months.

AMERICAN SHIPPING LINE IN DIFFICULTIES.

New York, January 1st.

The United States District Court has appointed a receiver for the New York and Cuba Mail Steamship Line, better known as the Ward Line, plying between New York, the West Indies and Central America.

The firm's liabilities are estimated at $2,000,000 and their assets are said to exceed their liabilities, but owing to abnormal shipping conditions all over the world, the line, according to the complaint of the petitioning creditors, lacks funds to meet its outstanding obligations and floating indebtedness.

DEATH OF NOTED BOXER.

Mineapolis, January 1st.

The death is announced of the heavy-weight boxer Billy Miske.

EARLIER CABLES.

AMERICA AND MEXICO. U.S. SALE OF ARMS.

Washington, January 1st.

Opponents of the Government's Mexican policy propose to introduce a resolution in the Lower House on Thursday, calling on Congress to investigate the sale of United States arms and munition to the Obregon Government. Undoubtedly a sharp debate in the Senate will follow and it is expected that points will be raised making it illegal to establish a precedent likely to disturb the future peaceful relations between the United States and Latin-America.

LIVELY DISCUSSIONS EXPECTED.

Washington, January 1st.

The De Lahuerta faction has filed with the States Department a formal protest against the selling of war material to President Obregon. The State Department and the War Department continued discussions regarding the sale of war material. The exact quantity is not yet disclosed, but it was apparently confined to rifles, ammunition, and aeroplanes, because the sale of cruisers and other warships, even if President Obregon asked for them would be impossible, owing to the Washington Naval Treaty.

ROAD-MAKING SCIENCE. SCHEME TO ESTABLISH CHAIR AT UNIVERSITY.

A scheme to put road-making on a scientific basis is occupying the attention of public officials, engineers, transport authorities, and other people interested in road construction and maintenance.

The principal feature of the scheme is the establishment of a chair of road engineering at one of the universities, probably the University of London.

Sir Henry Maybury, Director-General of the Roads Department of the Ministry of Transport, told a Daily Mail reporter that Great Britain is the only country in the world without a chair of highway engineering at a university. The money required to establish a chair had not yet been fully raised, but one of the City Livery Companies, the Paviers, had promised £5,000, and a number of exhibitors at the coming public works, roads and transport exhibition, and congress at the Agricultural Hall, N., had pledged themselves to provide a substantial sum.

Sir Henry added that research would play a prominent part in road-making in the future. When the chair was established it would be possible to tackle problems in a way that was impossible now.

A Ship's Captain & ZAM-BUK

Invaluable for Healing Heat Rashes, Sores, Mosquito Bites, etc.

ANOTHER striking tribute to the all-round healing capacity of Zam-Buk comes from Captain F. R. Harrie, a well-known personality amongst the merchants of the Mediterranean and African Ports. From his home, at Bembridge, England, Capt. Harrie writes:— "For a long time my African coastal trips used to be signalled by recurring attacks of a fiery itching skin disease which first appears as a blood-red rash about the groins and arm-pits. The least attempt to scratch or rub causes the scales of eruptive skin to come off and as the raw surfaces dry the pain and irritation grow beyond endurance."

"One time or another I must have tried scores of different ointments recommended by friends, but it was not until my skin had the benefit of Zam-Buk that the eczema gave sign of disappearing. Persistent application of this powerful herbal balm soothed and purified my skin most thoroughly. It ended the trouble once and for all."

"Zam-Buk has the same wonderful efficacy in soothing and healing prickly heat, and for removing poison, swelling and inflammation out of the bites of mosquitoes and other insect pests. I used to carry on board quite an outfit of special skin preparations for use in hot climates; but Zam-Buk practically fulfils the purposes of the lot, whilst its pure herbal character and freedom from animal fats make it particularly and peculiarly suitable for use in tropical and semi-tropical climates. I never put to sea now without a stock of Zam-Buk in the medicine chest. Nothing can compare with it for the relief of skin troubles."

ZAM-BUK, unequalled for its power in all manner of skin trouble is obtainable of chemists and dispensaries everywhere. Agents:—Messrs. Wakenfeld & Co. (China), Ltd., 60, King's Road, Shanghai.

INTERPORT RUGBY.

HONGKONG & SHANGHAI

VISITORS WIN BY A TRY.

Shanghai defeated Hongkong by two tries to one in the interport rugby game played yesterday afternoon at Happy Valley before a large and distinguished gathering, including H.E. the Governor (Sir R. E. Stubbs) and Lady Stubbs, H.E. the General Officer Commanding the troops in China (Sir John Fowler), H.E. the Commander-in-Chief of the China Fleet (Sir Arthur Leveson) and many other well-known residents.

The game was keenly contested throughout and at times there were exciting incidents. On the run of the game it must be admitted that the better team was, in science, in stamina and in attack Shanghai were superior. In science the Shanghai three-quarter men showed up brilliantly. They were keen and it is to them and perhaps to our weak defence that Shanghai was able to claim the victory. Once the ball was out of scrum they were not slow to take advantage of every opportunity, a feature that was lacking amongst our own three-quarter backs. Both tries scored by Shanghai were the result of scientific play; each of the three-quarter men being in position, the ball passing from one to the other in clock-work fashion and ending in Richard, their outside man, getting over the line on both occasions. Hongkong's three-quarter back line was weak. There appeared to be little or no combination. They did not show the same bright progressive passing tactics as the opposing team and King as full back came in for more than a full share of work. He played a good game and could generally be relied upon to clear, but he was overworked and it was asking too much to expect him to check every dangerous movement. His low tackling was also safe. Perhaps the only man who stood out in Hongkong's three-quarter line was Skinner as outside right, but he did not receive the support he should have done from the two inside men, Morrison and Easterbrook. Hongkong's forwards were good and generally they were better than the Shanghai forwards.

The Hongkong team realised its weak spot and in the second half made a change in the order of the team in trying to counteract it. Forth, the Hongkong Captain, went out of the scrum into the half back line, and Bowker who had played as half back, went into the three-quarter back line, which resulted in a great improvement and in Hongkong scoring a well-earned try.

As regards stamina, Shanghai lasted better than Hongkong. Up to half time our men had the better of things in the scrum work. They were stronger and generally managed to "beat" out, here it was that the difficulties beset the Hongkong men. They lost many opportunities of breaking away and were slow in picking up the ball once it was out of the scrum. During the second half this noticeable superiority of the Hongkong forwards fell away and the Shanghai forwards seemed to get the ball cleverly away from scrum more often than not. In speed also the Hongkong team was at a disadvantage and on one occasion at least Hongkong lost a golden opportunity of getting over the line, two of the Shanghai men beating two Hongkong men in a long sprint for the ball when it was dangerously near the Shanghai goal.

The match throughout was played in a very sporting manner, and apart from the usual forward passing there were very few irregularities. In the second half Dowley, playing in the Shanghai forward line, hurt his right leg badly, necessitating the call for a Doctor. Dr. McGowan went to the player's assistance and attended to him. Dowley was carried off the field but a few minutes later, amidst the cheers of the crowd, he re-appeared amongst the players, still limping badly. Shortly afterwards the game came to a close.

The first try was made by Shanghai in the first half after about a quarter of an hour's play. Webb got the ball from the scrum who neatly passed it along to Thompson, the ball then going to Richard on the left wing. Richard has a fine turn of speed and he managed to round the Hongkong back and cut over the line near the corner. McMeekin took the kick at goal but he failed to convert. Their second try came in the second half after about 20 minutes play. Practically the same men handled the ball, Richard rounding King again and getting over the line. McMeekin again took the kick but the ball went wide. Hongkong's try came in the closing stages of the game. It was the result of a rush by the Hongkong forwards down the right wing and cannot really be ascribed to any particular individuals. The Hongkong men kept the ball at their feet and dribbled it through. The ball was practically carried over the line by the rush of men, Day actually having the ball at the time when it went over. For a second or two there seemed to be some doubt as to whether Hongkong would be allowed the try, but the referee awarded a try to Hongkong. Bowker took the kick at goal and he had hard luck in not scoring, the ball just going outside the uprights by a few feet. Shortly afterwards the game ended, play when the whistle went being in the centre of the field.

The following are the teams:—
Hongkong: Full back, S. E. King; three-quarter backs, O. Skinner, J. A. D. Morrison, C. B. Easterbrook and H. R. Clelland; Half-backs, J. Clerk and A. C. I. Bowker; forwards, H. R. Forsyth, J. Ralston, H. E. D. Adams, H. H. Day, J. Miller, V. R. Jones, A. C. Groves and W. D. Neil.

Shanghai: Full back, G. R. Nicholl; three-quarter backs, J. Shaw, O. R. W. Thomson, H. W. P. McMeekin and G. F. W. Richard; half-backs, R. L. S. Webb and G. E. Gooden; forwards, W. E. D. Smith, E. J. Dowley, J. C. Stewart, E. A. Jenkinson, B. S. Stephenson, S. A. Groves, W. D. Neil and T. Leach.

FELIX THE CAT, SCREEN FAVOURITE, WORTH £25,000 A YEAR

Quite like a film romance is the true story of Felix the Cat, the astonishing screen pussy, who has made a fortune for his creator, Pat Sullivan.

Little more than two years ago Mr. Sullivan, then a struggling newspaper cartoonist, was pondering ideas for a new subject when his domestic black cat jumped upon his desk and settled in the middle of the paper as though asking to be drawn. Superstitiously accepting the cat's "Suggestion," the artist commenced a series of animal cartoons.

One Day, the ingenuity of the cartoons attracted the attention of a brother journalist, who suggested that they should be filmed. In screen form, the cartoons enjoyed an immediate success, which surprised nobody more than Mr. Sullivan.

Today the wonderful cat earns for his master an income of over £25,000 a year. At more than 1,100 British Cinemas they are regarded as a "STAR" item of the program. In point of world appeal, Felix is rivaling Charlie Chaplin.

Are you getting Old whisky?

If you are not certain, why not taste "P.D." which is a genuinely old whisky.

Whisky which is matured by time, and mellowed in the only true way, in wood, is none too plentiful to-day. Whether or not you get any of it depends on yourself.

When you have tasted a really old whisky you do not need to be an exceptionally good judge

SOUTH CHINA BEAT H.M.S.
"DESPATCH."

At Sockkumpoo yesterday before a good crowd of Chinese, South China beat the Despatch by a goal to nil. The game favoured the Chinese but the good defence put up by the sailors kept the score down.
A little more accuracy on the part of the sailors' forwards would probably have turned the tables for a couple of very easy chances were missed. Wong Pak Chong scored for South China after twenty-three minutes' play, beating Brewerton with a slow shot. Halftime, South China, 1; Despatch, 0.

The second half opened with the sailors playing up strongly but the South China players were very nippy. Chan Kwong put in some fine work on the wing and tried a few shots without success. We Lai Tong also sent in several shots but Brewerton was very safe. Several corners fell to the sailors but they were not successful and the final result was:—
South China, 1; Despatch, 0.

The teams:—
South China—Lau Hing Ching; Ng
Kam Cheun and Chan So; Leung Yik
Tong, Wong Shui Wah and Lam Yik
Ying; Pang Kam Wing, Pang Wah
Hing, Wong Pak Chong, Lai Wai Tong and Chan Kwong Oi.
Despatch—Brewerton; Riddle and Connan; Henshaw, Southey and White; Balecombe, Brewer, Underwood, Wood
and Carter.
Referee: Mr. Spencer.

NAVY DEFEAT THE ARMY.

At Sockkumpoo the Navy and Army played their Annual Match for charity.
A good number-lined the ropes and the spacious stand was comfortably filled.
The band of H.M.S. "Ambrose" played before the kick-off and during the interval.
The game ended in a win for the Navy by two goals to one. The play was fairly even and the result very open until the Navy scored their second goal. The first goal was scored by Shenton after forty minutes' play. Interval, Navy, 1; Army, 0.
The opening play in the second half greatly favoured the Army who had several chances to level up but could not get the ball past Phillips. On one occasion the goalie was beaten but the ball struck the post and rebounded to play, where the Navy defenders cleared.
The second goal was scored late in the second half and was somewhat lucky.
Hyde was pulled up for offence, but the referee noticing that he had made a mistake, dropped the ball down close in and Balecombe put it into the net. Shortly afterwards the final whistle sounded leaving the Navy winners by two clear goals.

The teams:—
Navy—Phillips (Goalkeeper); Leonard
(Diomed) and Boulter (Ambrose); Kemp
(Tian), Hudson (Zemba) and Butler
(Ambrose); Balecombe (Ambrose), Bal-combe (Despatch), Hyde (Hawkins), Shenton (Hawkins) and Burd (Tamar).
Army—Douglas (Surrey); Hum-
stone (Surrey) and Smith (R.G.A.); Howarth (R.G.A.), Boniface (Surrey) and Lelliott (R.G.A.); Charlesworth
(Surrey), Eaton (Surrey), Castledine
(R.G.A.), Nash (R.A.M.C.) and Mackleworth (Surrey).
Referee: Mr. R. W. Cassidy.

SIGNOR MUSSOLINI.

"LET GERMANY LIVE" DECLARATION.

Signor Mussolini, in the Senate recently, spoke on Italy's foreign policy.
He said that he had obtained a definite declaration from France that no agreement regarding the German industries would be reached between Germany and France without Italy's knowledge and participation.
Continuing, he said: Before going any farther I want to say that the Italian Government could not give its approval to any further occupation of German territory. (Loud applause.) We must have courage and say that the German people exists. There are 67,000,000 of human beings in German territory and a further 10 or 12 millions in Austria and other countries. One cannot, indeed, one must not, think of destroying those peoples.
(Loud applause.) They are a people which has known civilisation and which may to-morrow be an integral part of European civilisation.

The aims of the Italian Government to-day are:

Reduction of the German debt to a reasonable figure, followed by a proportional reduction of inter-Ally debts.

An adequate moratorium for Germany except in respect of reparations in kind.

The resumption of pledges and guarantees—the German Government is ready to furnish them.

The evacuation of the Ruhr once pledges and guarantees have been given.

No intervention in Germany's internal affairs, but moral and material support for any German Government which re-establishes order in the Reich and places her on the path of financial reform.

No territorial changes.

Wint I might call the Italian solution of the reparations problems is a via media between opposing interests and is therefore in harmony with the supreme interests of justice. (Loud applause.)

The Senate approved the policy.
